

Submittal Data

Model HPP Buckley Hooded Pipe Portal

Application and Design

Buckley Hooded Pipe Portals are used to provide a weather tight seal for piping and conduit penetrating the roof structure and are typically used for refrigeration piping.

Standard Construction

- + 18 Gauge Galvanized Steel
- + 2" Flange
- + Continuous Welds on Seams
- + 1" Thick, 3 lb. Rigid Fiberglass Insulation
- + Removable Roof Hood, Broken and Insulated
- + Field Cut Holes for Piping Penetrations

Options

- + Aluminum Construction
- + Custom Sizes and Heights
- + Extended Hood, 2-Sided Hood
- + Custom Knockouts w/ EPDM Nipples for Piping Penetrations

Single Hood - Standard Sizes

- + 24" Height
- + 8x8, 10x10, 12x12, 14x14, 16x16, 18x18, 20x20, 22x22, 24x24

Extended Hood - Standard Sizes

- + 24" Height
- + Widths: 12", 18", 24"
- + Length: 24", 48", 60", 84", 108"

Optional Custom Knockout

Single Hood

Extended Hood

Dimensional Data

Qty	Hood Style	Base Length (L)	Base Width (W)	Height (H)	Options

Buckley Associates, Inc.

Manufactured by Buckley Associates, Inc, Hanover, Massachusetts
Sheet Metal Union Local 17.

HPP
January 2025

